W. C. Whitney Decides Not to Run Yankee In the Mud at Sheepshead Bay - Monte Carlo Takes the Surf Stakes - Favorites

Fall to Win on a Heavy Track - Notes. The good eard offered by the Coney Island Jookey Club yesterday afternoon drew a lay. There were close to 15,000 persons present, but the rain interfered with the sport, as the track was a perfect quagmire. The talent falled to pick the winners, the majority of first choices being beaten. The main attractions were the two laws of the contractions were the two states. nain attractions were the two stake events, the Surf for two-year-olds over the last five and a half furlongs of the Futurity Course, and the Tidal for three-year-olds at a mile and a quarter, with a guaranteed value of

It was expected that W. C. Whitney's crack Yankee, the Futurity winner of last rear-old in the Tidal, but as Yankee is a better not to race him, and Goldsmith carried the stable's colors. Old England was also withdrawn by Green B. Morris, while A.

Featherstone scratched Emshee.
Owing to his good race in the mud at Gravesend, Major Daingerfield ruled an odds-on favorite, with Goldsmith second choice. From the time the barrier was lifted until the finish Major Daingerfield held the others safe. Shaw sent him to the front at once, and for six furiones he was attended by Remorse, with Goldsmith running third. On the far turn Burns made his run with Goldemith, and he was soon up to Major Dainger-Geld's head. Shaw let out a rap on Major Daingerfield, and he left Goldsmith and romped home the ensiest kind of a winner by eight lengths Goldsmith finished an easy cond before Dixicline, who closed strongly at the end. F. C. McLewce & Co. receive $15,000 for Major Dangerfield's victory, W. C. Whitney gets $2,500 because Goldsmith was second and Dixteline's third gives $1,500 to T Wilson, Jr. For being the nominator Major Daincerfield P J. Dwyer receives 00, W C Whitney $300 more for nominating oldsmith and the Pepper Stable $200 for second and Dialeime's third gives $1,500 to R. T. Wilson, Jr. For being the nominator of Major Dainterfield P. J. Dwyer receives $150, W. C. Whitney $300 more for nominating Dialeime.

The race for the Surf Stakes was run previous to the Tidal. There were seven starters, as Jere Dunn added Sunny Shore. Charles Elwood and Monte Carlo were equal favorites at 11 to 5. There was a strong tip on the Pepper Stable's Bounding Beauty, while a plunge on Sunny Shore made the layers cut her odds from 50 to 1 to 20 to 1. Just as the horses started on their journey the rain came down in torrents and as the race was out of the chute it was impossible to distinguish the colors. A quarter of a mile from home Monte Carlo was the leader, with an advantage of two lengths over Charles Elwood, but in the run through the last furlong Monte Carlo began to tire, which forced Odom to sit down and ride hard in order to get Monte Carlo began to tire, which forced Odom to sit down and ride hard in order to get Monte Carlo home haif a length before Charles Elwood Hackensack ran a muchimproved race in the mud and flushed third. The opening event was the Inaugural Steeplechase run over the short course. Thirteen were carded to so, but only five faced the starter. Foolhardy was the favorite, but was beatten a short head by the second choice. Rowdy. The latter was handled in splendid style by Barry, while A Hewett made a wide turn on Foolhardy into the flat. Rowdy led by a length over the last jump, but then tired under his 150 pounds, yet Barry, by a strong fluish, made him last the journey out and take first money.

The second event, a six-furlong dash on the main track, was a good betting affair, with the Keene horse Delagoa carrying a big commission of Pittsburg Phil, favorite at 13 to 5. Guesswork set the pace to the stretch, where Fernesole went to the front and won by a length from Morokanta, who was a head before the 100 to 1 shot. Military, with Gloriosa, Mount Hope, Mary McCafferty. Blue Banner. Soothsayer and Dr. Saylor well played.

Lanceman were the only starters. Although he had top weight Swiftmas was favorite at 9 to 10. Swiftmas ran a disappointing race, for after leading for six furlongs he tired and finished last. When Swiftmas stopped Belvino went to the front, but Lanceman passed him in the stretch and won by eight lengths. The summaries. FIRST RACE.

CORONATION BOXING TOURNEY. White Defeats "Spike" Sullivan -Connelly Bests Pat Daly.

Special Cable Desputch to THE SUM. London, June 21. The International Coronation Tournament opened at the National Sporting Club this evening. The first contest was between "Spike" Sulfivan and Jabez White. The match was fifteen ounds at 124 pounds, for the championship of the world. White throughout was the better man. During the opening rounds there was clever sparring. White several times reached his opponent, but without doing any damage. In the fourth, fifth and sixth rounds the Englishman gradually wore his man down. Sullivan was blowing freely at the end of the eighth round, and by the tenth he was almost beaten. Thereafter White rapidly asserted his superiority
